AERONAUTS DASHED TO THE GROUND.

A. Holland Forbes and J. C. Yates, of New York, Badly Injured After a Long Flight.

BALLOON FALLS IN METCALFE COUNTY

Monday evening of last week a balloon containing A. Holland Forbes and J. C. Yates, both of New York, left Quincy, Illinois, on a long journey. They sailed out of Illinois into Indiana and reached Kentucky, and when near Center, Metcalfe county, they lost control of the gasbag and were attempting to light, but at a distance of one hundred feet from the ground the balloon, like a piece of lead, dropped to earth. Both men were badly injured, Yates very seriously. New York friends wired, "take special care of the men."

Do not travel with your harness tied with strings, you can get a new set for a little money at the Buchanan Lyon Company.

Holladay-Cheatham.

Miss Lettie Holladay, a daughter of Mrs. Sallie Holladay, was married last Thursday morning to Mr. O. V. Cheatham, the ceremony being impressively said by Eld. F. J. Barger. The bride is an excellent young woman and was quite a favorite in the neighborhood. The groom is a prosperous farmer and trader of Cumberland county. Soon after the ceremony the couple left for the home of the groom, carrying the best wishes of many friends and relatives in Adair county.

Dr. R. H. Perryman, who lives near Purdy, was in Columbia last Thursday, the first time for twelve months. He has regained his health, weighing at this time over two hundred pounds. The Doctor has been a staunch supporter of the local papers of this town. During the life of the Spectator—forty years, he was a subscriber during all that long period. He also subscribed for The News when it started, nearly thirteen years ago, and the paper continues to visit him weekly. He informed a News man Thursday that he thought he would live to be one hundred years old, and that he would pay for the News annually until he reached that age, but when he arrived at the century mark, he expected the editor to place him on the free list, and the paper man readily agreed to do so.

Revival at the Baptist Church.

Dr. J. S. Dill, of Bowling Green, a learned theologian and a very entertaining and forcible speaker, has been conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist church during the past week. Ministers of other denominations are attending and are co-operating in the meeting. Large congregations are present at the evening services and the afternoon meetings are well attended, showing that the people of Columbia are very much interested. Not a word derogatory to the teachings of other denominations has been said—just the simple story of Christ is being told, but in a most scholarly and captivating manner. Dr. Dill's descriptive powers are great and at times he grows dramatic, thrilling the audience. There are but few stronger pulpit orators, all points being clearly presented. His sermon especially to men last Sunday, showing the character of men this country needs and the lines he marked out for those who stood for the right to follow, was, indeed, a very helpful discourse and doubtless put many in the congregation to thinking. At the close of this service nearly all the men in the congregation, and there were many present, went forward and shook the ministers' hand. The meeting has done good and we believe much more will be accomplished. Services each afternoon and evening throughout this week. People living out of town should make an effort to attend the services.

Mr. Presley Clark, who conducts the singing, has a very melodious voice, keeps the choir in perfect time, and the music rendered has been very inspiring. Mr. Clark, as we understand, has decided to make sacred music a life work and those who are hearing him feel sure that he is very competent for the laudable calling. The sentiment of his solos is beautiful, rendered in the most perfect manner. He enters upon a promising future in his line of work.

Louie, a five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Feese, was severely hurt last Thursday afternoon. His father was hauling a load of lumber from the mill to his dwelling, the boy following behind the wagon. En route the wheels of the wagon passed over a scantling and it flew and struck the child on the left leg, below the knee, cutting a very ugly gash. Dr. Russell closed up the wound.

See how easy that buggy runs. It is from the Buchanan Lyon Company.

Meeting of Medical Society.

The Adair County Medical Society met at the Court-house last Thursday forenoon. The attendance was not large, as several physicians in the county were reported sick. Dr. McChord, of Lebanon, was here and read the opening paper. He was followed with papers by Dr. U. L. Taylor and Dr. E. A. Waggener. They all contained timely suggestions and the hearers listened with much interest. Judge H. C. Baker and Drs. J. H. Grady and R. H. Perryman made short talks on the contents of the papers. These meetings could be made very interesting to the laity, and they should be largely attended. At this meeting quite a number of ladies honored the society with their presence.

The ball game, St. Marys against Lindsey-Wilson, failed at materialize. A message from the former, received Friday afternoon, stated that several of the players were indisposed. It was a disappointment, as many lovers of the sport expected to witness the game.

Death of Mrs. J. W. Stone.

Last Wednesday, about the noon hour, after a long illness, Mabel, who was the youngest child of the late Col. Frank and Elizabeth Wolford, and the wife of J. W. Stone, died at her late home, a few miles north of Columbia. The deceased was about twenty-eight years old and was born and reared in this city. When quite a young girl she confessed her faith in Christ, united with the Christian church and lived a consistent member until the end. In the absence of her pastor, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Dudgeon, of the Baptist church, at the home. The interment was in the Columbia cemetery Thursday afternoon, many relatives and friends being present. The deceased leaves a husband, two little boys, an aged mother, one brother and two sisters, who have the sympathy of this town.

The most durable and the easiest running buggies are sold by the Buchanan Lyon Company.

Clean The Town.

The time has come for a general cleaning of the streets and allies, and the private property of the town. Let each citizen gather up all the filth about his premises, including all tins and vessels of every kind, that would afford breeding places for mosquitos, place them in boxes or barrels so they can be gathered up by the town wagons and carried beyond the town limits. The wagons will be around on Friday, May 20th, 1910.

U. L. Taylor, Health Officer.

The Recital.

On Friday evening the large audience which had assembled at the Lindsey-Wilson felt fully repaid for going, the occasion being a dramatization, "Polly of the Circus," given by Miss Zella Pelly, who is a pupil of Miss David. Although her part was lengthy she gave it without a single mistake, showing a great talent for the work and that she had been well trained.

The play was humorous and very much enjoyed. Those who heard her feel justly proud of the fact that she is a home girl and predict for her a bright future. She was assisted by pupils of Miss Gibbs with a musical program which was splendid and also very enjoyable.

Nothing takes like an attractive buggy. Get one from the Buchanan Lyon Company.

Remarkable Accident.

Last Friday afternoon at the McLean saw-mill, one mile from Columbia, an accident occurred and it is remarkable that several men were not killed. A log had been placed on the carriage and the saw started, but before it got half through the log, the dogs which held it in its place gave way, the log turning. Both saws flew to pieces, and what is strange seven men were standing about the saws, all escaping unhurt. This accident occurred in the afternoon a few hours after Jim Duncan was almost killed at the same mill.

Mrs. Nancy Acre, ninety-five years old, a native of this county, received a number of friends at the Hancock Hotel last Tuesday. She is a sister of Flem S. Carter, who is in fine health, and who celebrated his one hundredth anniversary the 11th day of last March. Mrs. Acre is the widow of Green Acre, who died many years ago, and who was a first cousin of Preston H. Leslie, one time Governor of Kentucky. She is in full possession of her mental faculties, and tells many interesting stories of early days in Adair county.

The grand jury is now in session and there is a great deal of work that should be before it. But a grand jury can not accomplish anything without witnesses. Therefore, all good citizens who are summoned to appear before it, should promptly appear and tell what they know concerning unlawful acts. A good citizen is under no obligations to protect those who knowingly violate the law, and if there are lawless men in the county they should be indicted. Do not go before the body and say you do not recollect, but if you know anything that is going on or has transpired that was unlawful, tell it.

Aeroplanes in Flight.

The people of Kentucky at last are to have an opportunity to see aeroplanes in flight, with real bird men soaring high in air and executing difficult and interesting evolutions with no other sustaining power than the planes and motors.

The Louisville Times has announced that a great aviation meet is to be held in Louisville on June 18-19 at Churchill Downs, under the auspices of that paper, at which some of the world's most noted aviators will be seen with their wonderful aircraft. Most prominent among these will be Glenn H. Curtiss, whose daring achievements both here and abroad have stamped him as a peerless bird man. Such others as Charles F. Willard, Charles K. Hamilton, Horace F. Wild, "Bud" Mars and C. K. Bates will also be in the contests for the supremacy of the air.

The comparatively recent advancement in the science of aviation has been such as to startle the entire world and the daily accounts of broken records show that there are still great possibilities for unheard of adventures by the "sky pilots." That records may be broken at the Louisville meet is extremely likely from the fact that experts have declared the Churchill Downs course an ideal place for such meets and again for the reason that unusually fortunate dates have been secured. Weather reports for years past show that the wind velocity for the last half of June is the slowest of any time in the year of Kentucky and of course this is conducive to the easy handling of the great machines.

It is expected that low rates will be secured on all railroads leading into Louisville for these two days and it is expected that record-breaking crowds will flock to the historic race course, where heretofore the Kentucky thoroughbred has held undisputed sway.

Examine your old McCormick machines and see what repairs you will need, place your order with Reed & Miller, our repair agents, so as to enable them to get repairs in plenty time thereby saving unnecessary expense of telephone and express charges by waiting until the last moment. The Burkesville Banner of last week stated that its town was making preparations to put down concrete walks and to install a first-class electric light plant, and in a short time people of Albany, Edmonston, Columbia and Celina Tenn., would be invited to call and see Burkesville in her city ways. Columbia has been lighted with electricity for four years, and as to concrete walks we have miles of it. A gentleman who was trading in town, a few days ago, was asked how far he lived from Columbia. "Four miles," he said, but I can walk from my house to town on concrete pavements."
